FORMER BOURBON GIRL IN RADIO CONCERT

Mrs. David Bachrach, formerly Miss Birdie Wollstein, of Paris, now residing in Dallas, Texas, was complimented recently in the Dallas papers as participating in a radio concert. The complimentary reference was accompanied by a handsome half-tone cut of Mrs. Bachrach.

Mrs. Bachrach is the possessor of a remarkably fine soprano voice, which she used to advantage in concert recitals and in church programs here. At the Dallas concert she rendered the following selections: "Minor and Major," (Spross); "For You Alone," (Gheel); "That's The World in June," (Spross); "Thank God For a Garden," (Del Riego); "The Cuckoo," (Liza Lehmann); "If No One Ever Marries Me," (Liza Lehmann); "Who Knows," (Ernst Ball.)

REGISTER TUESDAY

Next Tuesday, October 3, is regular registration day. The voting booths will be open from 6 a. m. to 9 p. m., for both men and women eligible to register.

It should be borne in mind that this registration is important, for it not only qualifies voters to participate in the November election this year, but in the State primary next August, at which party candidates will be selected for the various State offices, from Governor down.

All eligible voters, therefore, are urged to go to the polling places in their precincts and register. No registration will be held in the county precincts, as the law making registration in county precincts uniform with those in cities and towns was recently held unconstitutional by the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

SCHOOL NOTES

The Paris City Schools will present to the Paris people this fall, winter and spring the most attractive Lyceum Course they have ever had.

The course is made up entirely of musical companies and entertainers. The famous Temple Singers, who were so attractive here last season, will return.

The following is the program of entertainers. Cut out this notice and keep for reference:

October 7—Wodonis Indians.
October 24—Electa Hunt Co.
October 30—Kaufman Quartette.
November 2—Hendry Duo.
November 16—Ash Davis.
November 20—Robert Bowman.
December 4—Temple Singers.
January 13—Pellitiers Players.
February 8—De Jeu & Co.

Miss Frances Butler is chairman of the finance committee and will sell you a season ticket for $2.50 until the auditorium is sold out.

Dr. Holmes, of the University of Kentucky, will meet his Extension Class in Health Education at the Paris City School, Tuesday, October 26, at 3 o'clock. Every person interested in Health Education is invited to join this class.

This is the first meeting of the class and the regular time that the class will meet has not been determined.

Every person interested in health education is invited to join the classes being conducted at the Paris High School under the direction of Dr. Holmes, of the University of Kentucky. These classes are to be conducted every Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, in the High School.

Prof. Farquhar and Dr. Tutill will meet their classes in English and history at the High School building, to-morrow (Saturday) morning, at nine and ten o'clock, respectively. Everyone interested in these courses is invited to join at this time.

The University of Kentucky extension department will bring higher education to the doorsteps of the mountains this year by the establishment of classes carrying regular college credit in Ashland and Pikeville, it was announced by Professor Wellington Patrick, director of extension.

Classes already have been started in Paris, Georgetown and Lexington, and arrangements are under way for classes in Winchester. The establishment of extension sections in other towns probably will be announced soon.

The extension classes will be conducted in the same manner as regular classes expect that they will meet only once a week.

Among the classes at Paris are English, by Professor E. F. Farquhar; hygiene, by Dr. D. K. Holmes, and history, by Dr. Edward Tutill. Dr. J. T. C. Noe will offer a class in education at Georgetown.

"SAVE AND SMILE"

The Pullman Gives You an Extra Room Without Increasing Your Rent

EVERY family needs extra sleeping quarters in the home in case of emergency. Unexpected visitors come; a nurse may be necessary in any home at any time; you may wish friends to remain over night or to week-end with you; you may wish to accommodate a friend or good neighbor for a night or two; the man of the family may wish a business friend remain over night, whatever the emergency or occasion may be, a Pullman provides the extra sleeping quarters.

Some families may want to rent out a room because of present high rents. Some families may be moving into smaller apartments with fewer sleeping rooms—these are but SOME of the reasons for the immense popularity of the "Pullman."

Here is an opportunity to secure the genuine Pullman, the Davenport Bed that matches up with other furnishings in your home. You can get the same designs, the same woods (mahogany, walnut or oak), the same comfort that you get in the finest stationary davenports.

Here is a beautiful living room piece of furniture that is "as handsome as the finest davenport, as comfortable as the best bed"—one that gives double, or day-and-night service—two pieces of furniture at the price of one.
